GETTING STARTED

Why does all of this brand stuff matter?

Let's put Educators Rising on the map in a clear, consistent, high-impact way. All of our communities and rising educators will benefit when people across the country view Educators Rising as a first-class organization.

The Educators Rising brand system is a way for us — teachers, students, administrators, partners, and supporters — to join together as one voice to communicate the powerful work we do to help prepare the next generation of great teachers. With a strong, consistent brand, we will be able to showcase and expand the strength in our national network.

YOU are the Brand!

As an official affiliate or chapter of Educators Rising, you play a primary role in the way people experience Educators Rising in your state, region, and local community. You bring the brand to life. It is through your courses, internships, and community engagement that students, teachers, parents, administrators, and community members will see, hear about, or interact with the Educators Rising brand.

When each of us uses the brand with consistency, Educators Rising becomes a recognized voice that will inspire and mobilize people to act in communities across the country. Brand recognition will allow us to recruit more students and teacher leaders to participate locally and nationally, encourage funders and partners to support the program, and show the world the difference that our work makes!

Using This Guide

This brand guide provides the tools and information you need to promote the right image of Educators Rising in your school and community. We want to make it easy for you to incorporate the look and feel of Educators Rising into your print and digital materials, to complement the powerful work you're already doing.

If you have any questions, you can contact Allie Strandmark, Brand Manager, at allie@educatorsrising.org or 812-269-6621.

MESSAGING

OUR BRAND VOICE

When speaking about Educators Rising, we have created core messages that communicate who we are, what we do, and how we do it.

Our Vision

Every teacher in America has the skills and experience to help all students achieve their potential.

Our Mission

Educators Rising cultivates highly skilled educators by guiding young people on a path to becoming accomplished teachers, beginning in high school and extending through college and into the profession.

Who We Are

Educators Rising is a national network of students and teacher leaders who are inspired and excited by the teaching profession.

What We Do

Starting with high school students, we provide passionate young people with authentic opportunities to experience teaching, sustain their interest in the profession, and help them cultivate the skills they need to be successful educators.

How We Do It

In high school, Educators Rising supports curricular programs where students explore the teaching profession and gain hands-on teaching experience. In college, Educators Rising supports campus-based student groups that promote the development of aspiring teachers. Educators Rising also helps students and teachers connect and deepen their learning through the EdRising Virtual Campus, a cutting-edge online community that offers rigorous resources to support the development of great teachers.

NAME AND TAGLINE

Our Name: Educators Rising

When possible, we suggest that Educators Rising is spelled out in full. It's our name, and we want people to know it. If necessary, Educators Rising can be shortened to EdRising. (This is the only short version of the name that we use.)

DO USE:

Educators Rising
EdRising (if necessary)

DON'T USE:

Educator's Rising
ED Rising
ER
Other shortened or altered versions of the name

Tagline

BOILERPLATE

Boilerplate is the basic language we always use to describe Educators Rising. Use it verbatim in any communications piece that includes “About Educators Rising” copy. Consistent use of our boilerplate demonstrates professionalism and helps us establish a clearer sense of who we are.

About Educators Rising

Educators Rising is transforming how America develops aspiring teachers. Starting with high school students, we provide passionate young people with hands-on teaching experience, sustain their interest in the profession, and help them cultivate the skills they need to be successful educators. The result is a pipeline of accomplished teachers who are positioned to make a lasting difference — not only in the lives of their students, but also in the field of teaching more broadly.

Learn more about how you can advance great teaching at educatorsrising.org.

LANGUAGE CHOICES

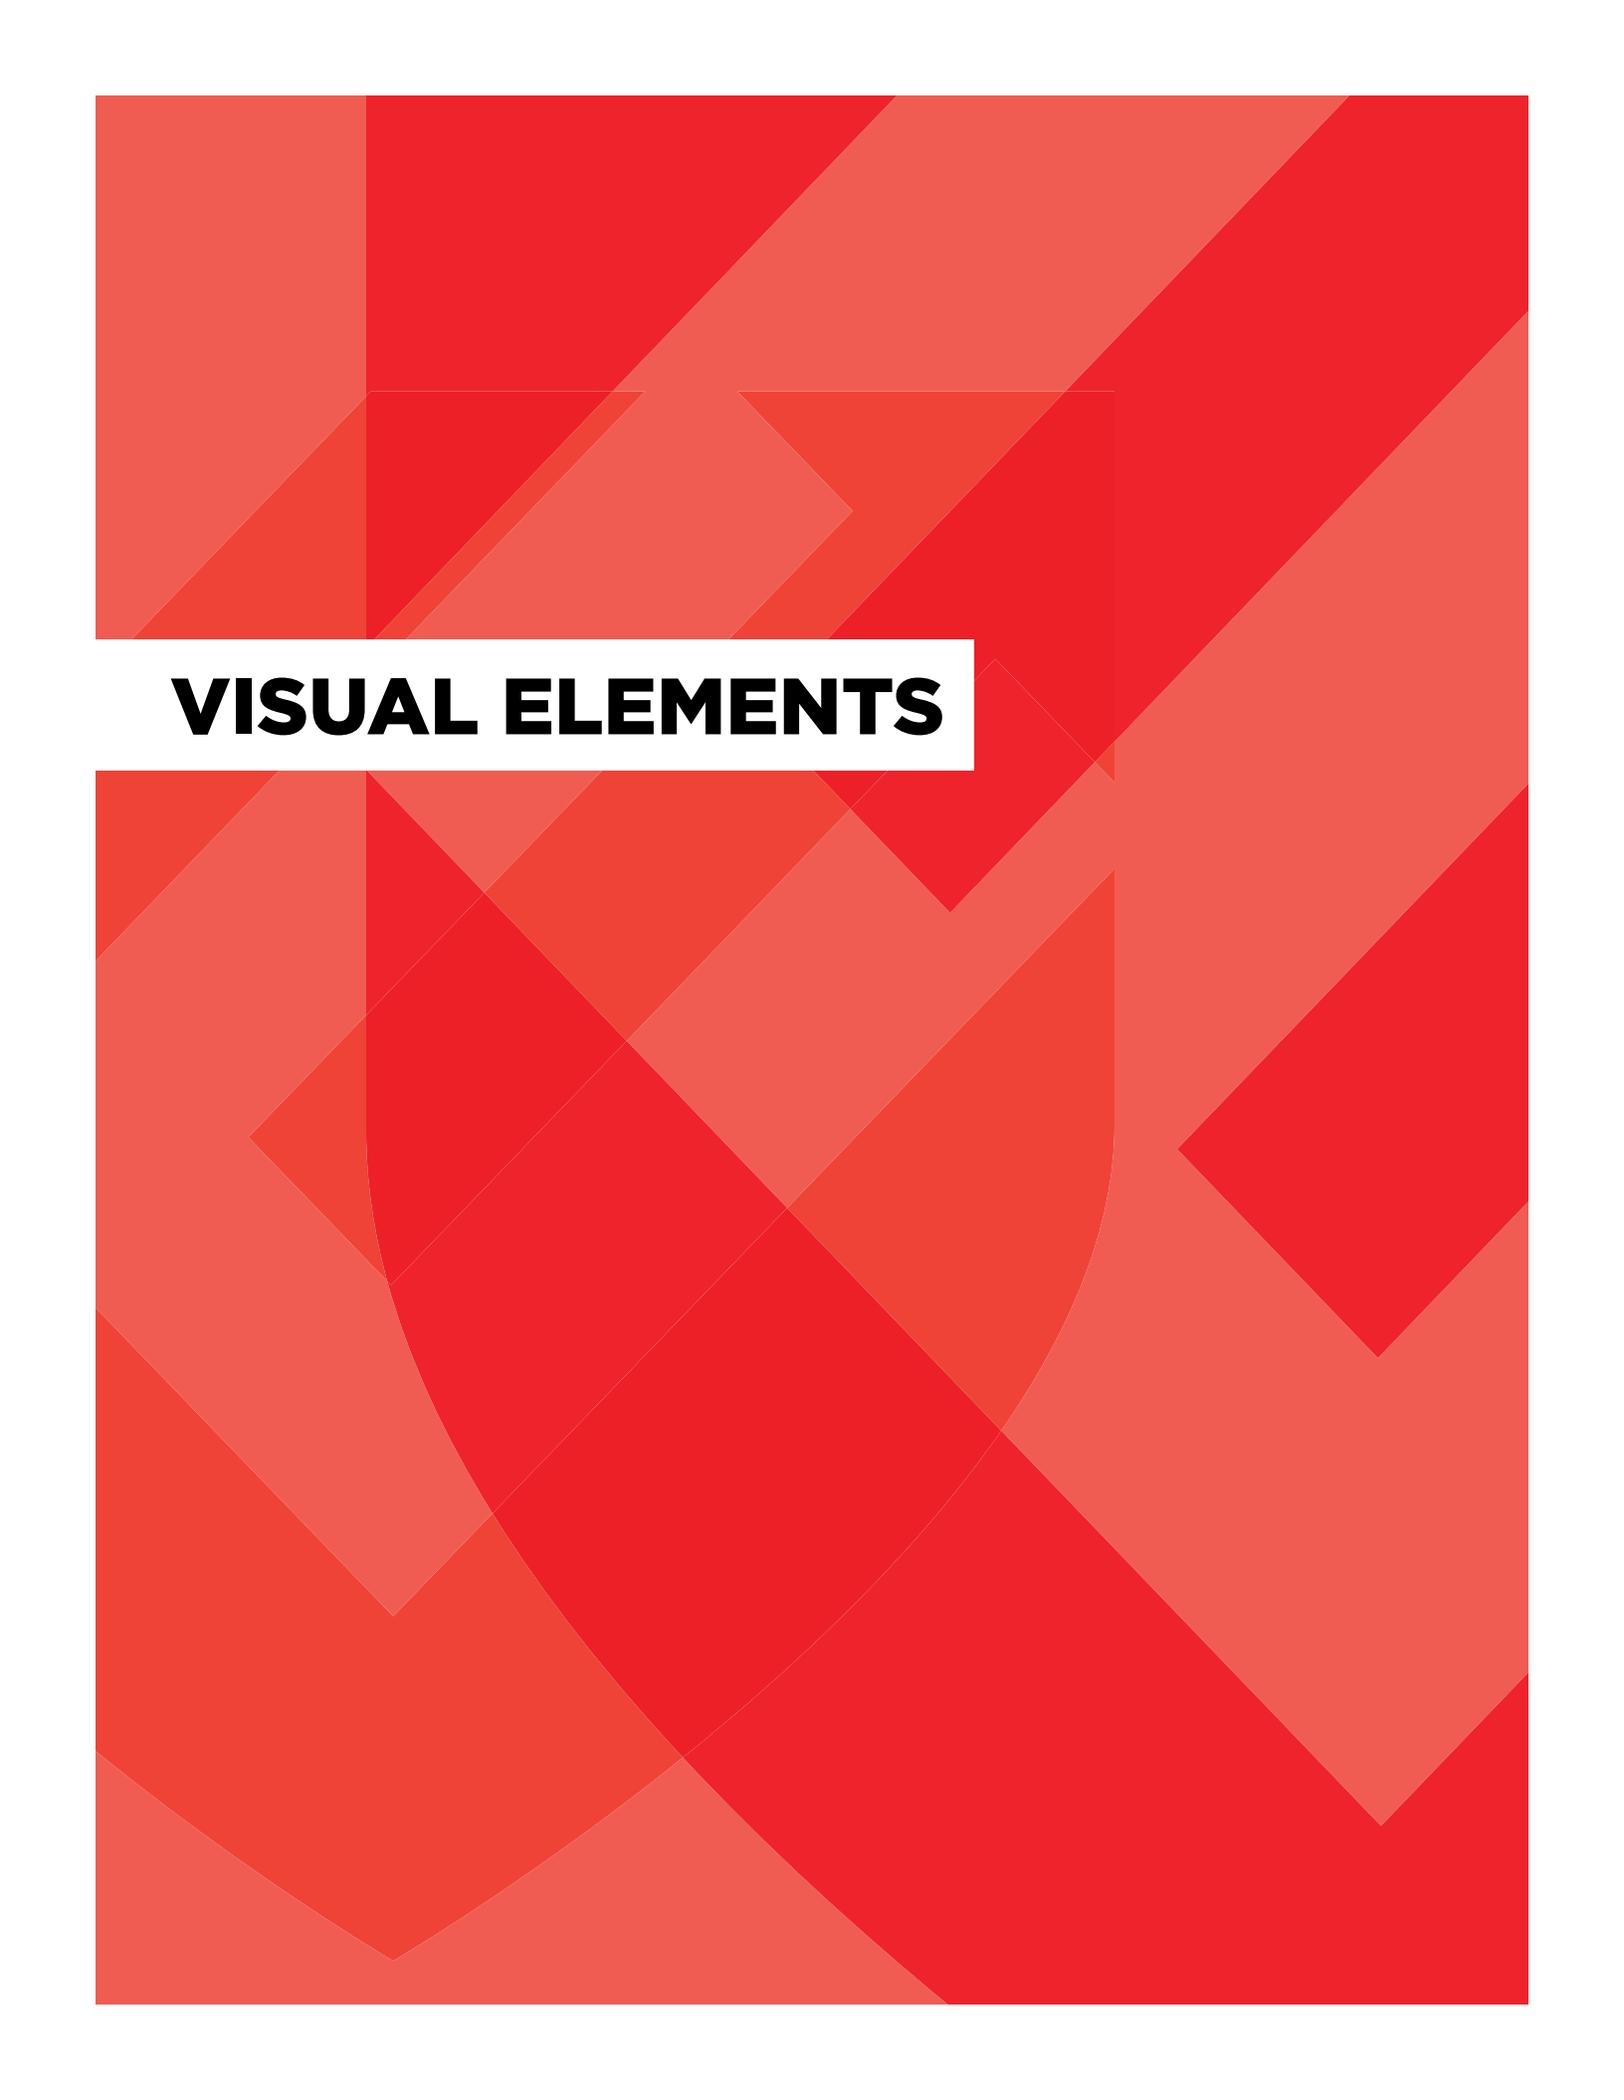

We have a number of specific word choices that we should always use for consistency.

Membership/Chapter Language

- ▶ Chapters: To refer to the individual schools that have Educators Rising members.
- ▶ Network: To refer to the overall organization. Our network is what every individual, school, and chapter joins.
- ▶ Teacher leaders: To refer to the teachers leading courses, internships, and community engagement at the local chapter level. Our teachers (you!) are leaders who are making an impact. (“Teacher leaders” replaces the use of “advisors” or “sponsors.”)
- ▶ Rising educators or Members: These terms can be used interchangeably to describe individuals in the network. You might introduce a student by saying, “This is one of our rising educators” or “This is one of our members.”

“Join” Language

When talking about membership, use verbs instead of nouns as much as possible. This is more appealing to young people. For example, instead of “Become a member of Educators Rising,” say “Join Educators Rising” or “Connect to our network.”

The background is a vibrant red color with a complex, abstract pattern of overlapping geometric shapes. These shapes include triangles, squares, and larger polygons, some of which are semi-transparent, creating a layered effect. The colors range from a deep, saturated red to a lighter, more translucent shade. A white rectangular box is positioned horizontally across the middle of the page, containing the text "VISUAL ELEMENTS" in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

VISUAL ELEMENTS

USING THE LOGO

In an effort to create brand consistency and make things easier for you, we've developed templates with the Educators Rising logo. The template library includes:

- ▶ Letterhead
- ▶ Word document with the logo that you can adapt for your needs
- ▶ Certificates
- ▶ Promotional materials
- ▶ PowerPoint
- ▶ Press Release

Templates can be downloaded in the Resources section of the Teacher Leader Community at educatorsrising.org/virtualcampus.

LOGO REQUEST PROCESS

Is there something missing from the templates we provided? We can help! If you need the Educators Rising logo to create additional materials, please submit a request using the Educators Rising Logo Request Form.

Logos may be requested by individuals or organizations that are affiliated with the Educators Rising network or by media outlets.

Logos may be used for printed and digital materials, such as websites, social media, banners, brochures, handouts, posters, conference signage, programs, and flyers. The trademarked official Educators Rising logo and the Educators Rising name may not be used on any clothing. The Educators Rising logo and name may not be used on accessories or items that are re-sold.

PROTECTING THE BRAND OF EDUCATORS RISING IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE EDUCATORS RISING NATIONAL OFFICE AND ITS AFFILIATES AT THE REGIONAL, STATE, AND LOCAL LEVELS.

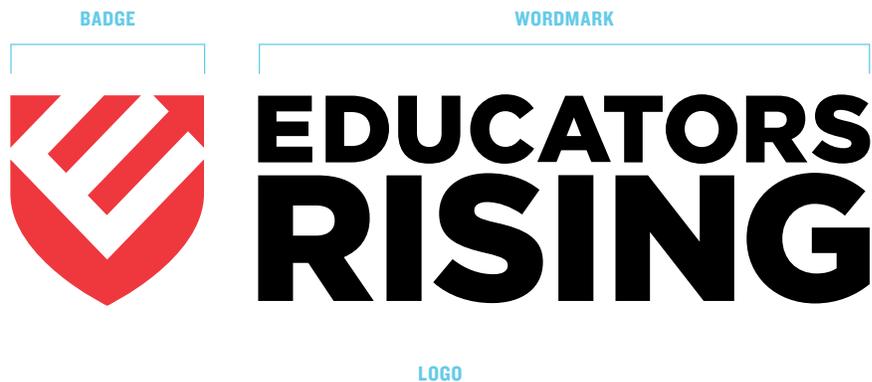

USING THE EDUCATORS RISING LOGO MEANS YOU AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE FOLLOWING VISUAL ELEMENT GUIDELINES OUTLINED ON P. 8-13.

LOGO AND TAGLINE

The Educators Rising logo is made up of two elements: our “badge” symbol and our name (wordmark). Our symbol, conveying a badge of honor, contains an “E” within the negative space, and an arrow pointing up and to the right.

The logo-tagline lockup should be used as much as possible. However, our logo may be used without the tagline if the tagline appears elsewhere on the same surface, or if space is limited.

The logo should always be reproduced from master digital artwork provided and should not be redrawn or recreated. When a design calls for the tagline to appear separately from the logo, use the provided artwork. Do not type out the tagline.

Color Versions

Whenever possible, the full-color logo should be used since it best represents our brand. A white background color is also strongly recommended. However, additional logo versions are available for special production situations.

A grayscale logo version is provided for use in black-and-white applications, such as faxes or newspaper ads. The grayscale version should not be used on any materials produced in full color.

A white (reversed) version of the logo is recommended for use on materials where the logo must appear against a dark-colored background. When using this version, always make sure that the background color provides sufficient contrast for the logo to be easily read.

Logo Usage

CLEAR SPACE

Consistent use of logo alignment, spacing, and size helps solidify our brand.

For optimal legibility and impact, the logo should always be set apart from other design elements. The minimum amount of space between the logo and other elements should be at least equal to an "E" from Educators.

LOGO PLACEMENT

Minimum Size

The logo should always appear large enough to be easily read. Please follow the recommended minimum sizes for the logo versions, with and without the tagline.

1.5" WIDE (print)
144 PX (screen)

2.25" WIDE (print)
216 PX (screen)

Do's and Don'ts

The examples on this page illustrate misuse of the logo that can dilute the strength of our brand. As a rule, always reproduce the logo using the appropriate master digital file and do not modify or alter it in any way.

DO NOT STRETCH OR CHANGE THE PROPORTIONS

DO NOT CHANGE THE COLORS IN THE LOGO

DO NOT ROTATE THE LOGO

DO NOT ADD DROP SHADOWS OR OTHER EFFECTS TO THE LOGO

DO NOT REARRANGE THE ELEMENTS OF THE LOGO

DO NOT PLACE THE LOGO ON BUSY BACKGROUNDS

COLOR PALETTE

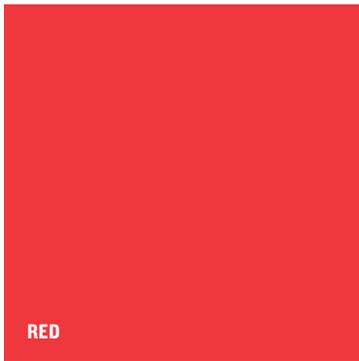

Color is an integral element of the Educators Rising visual identity, and it is important that it be reproduced consistently and accurately. Because different printing processes and onscreen displays encode color differently, each color in the palette is shown with several equivalent versions.

SUPPLEMENTAL COLORS

Our secondary color palette is for limited use and should only be used in addition to our core colors. They should not compete with our primary colors.

The colors represented throughout this guide have not been evaluated by Pantone, Inc and may not match the Pantone system. Consult a Pantone Color Formula Guide for reference. PANTONE® is the property of Pantone, Inc.

TYPEFACES

Consistent use of typography strengthens the recognition of our visual identity and helps maintain a sophisticated, professional look for our materials and communications. Use the typefaces shown here to create a unified look across all media. Additional typefaces should be avoided.

Our primary headline typeface is Gotham Black and our text font is Caecilia Light, but we don't expect you to purchase these! Arial Regular and Bold are our alternate fonts, which are available on all computers. Please use Arial when developing materials — even in Word documents, PowerPoint presentations, and emails.

WEBSITES AND SOCIAL MEDIA

All Educators Rising communications should have a similar look and feel, even when they are digital. It helps strengthen our online presence. That's why the same logo standards still apply for the web.

These questions can help guide your website, webpage, and social media design:

- ▶ Is my site/page recognizable as part of the greater Educators Rising network?
- ▶ Is my logo crowded by other elements on the page (p. 9)?
- ▶ Is my logo sized appropriately (p. 10)?
- ▶ Am I using colors that belong to the color palette (p. 11)?
- ▶ Am I using Arial font where possible (p. 12)?
- ▶ Is my online presence friendly, engaging, and appealing to young people?

Profile Pictures

Both Twitter and Facebook use square images for their profile pictures that often appear as a smaller thumbnail size photo throughout the site. We recommend using the Educators Rising badge for your Facebook/Twitter profile picture. It can be tricky to crop the logo correctly to fit these squares, so we've provided smaller versions of the badge for you to use.

YOU CAN DOWNLOAD THE EDUCATORS RISING BADGE FOR SOCIAL MEDIA IN THE RESOURCES SECTION OF THE TEACHER LEADER COMMUNITY AT educatorsrising.org/virtualcampus.

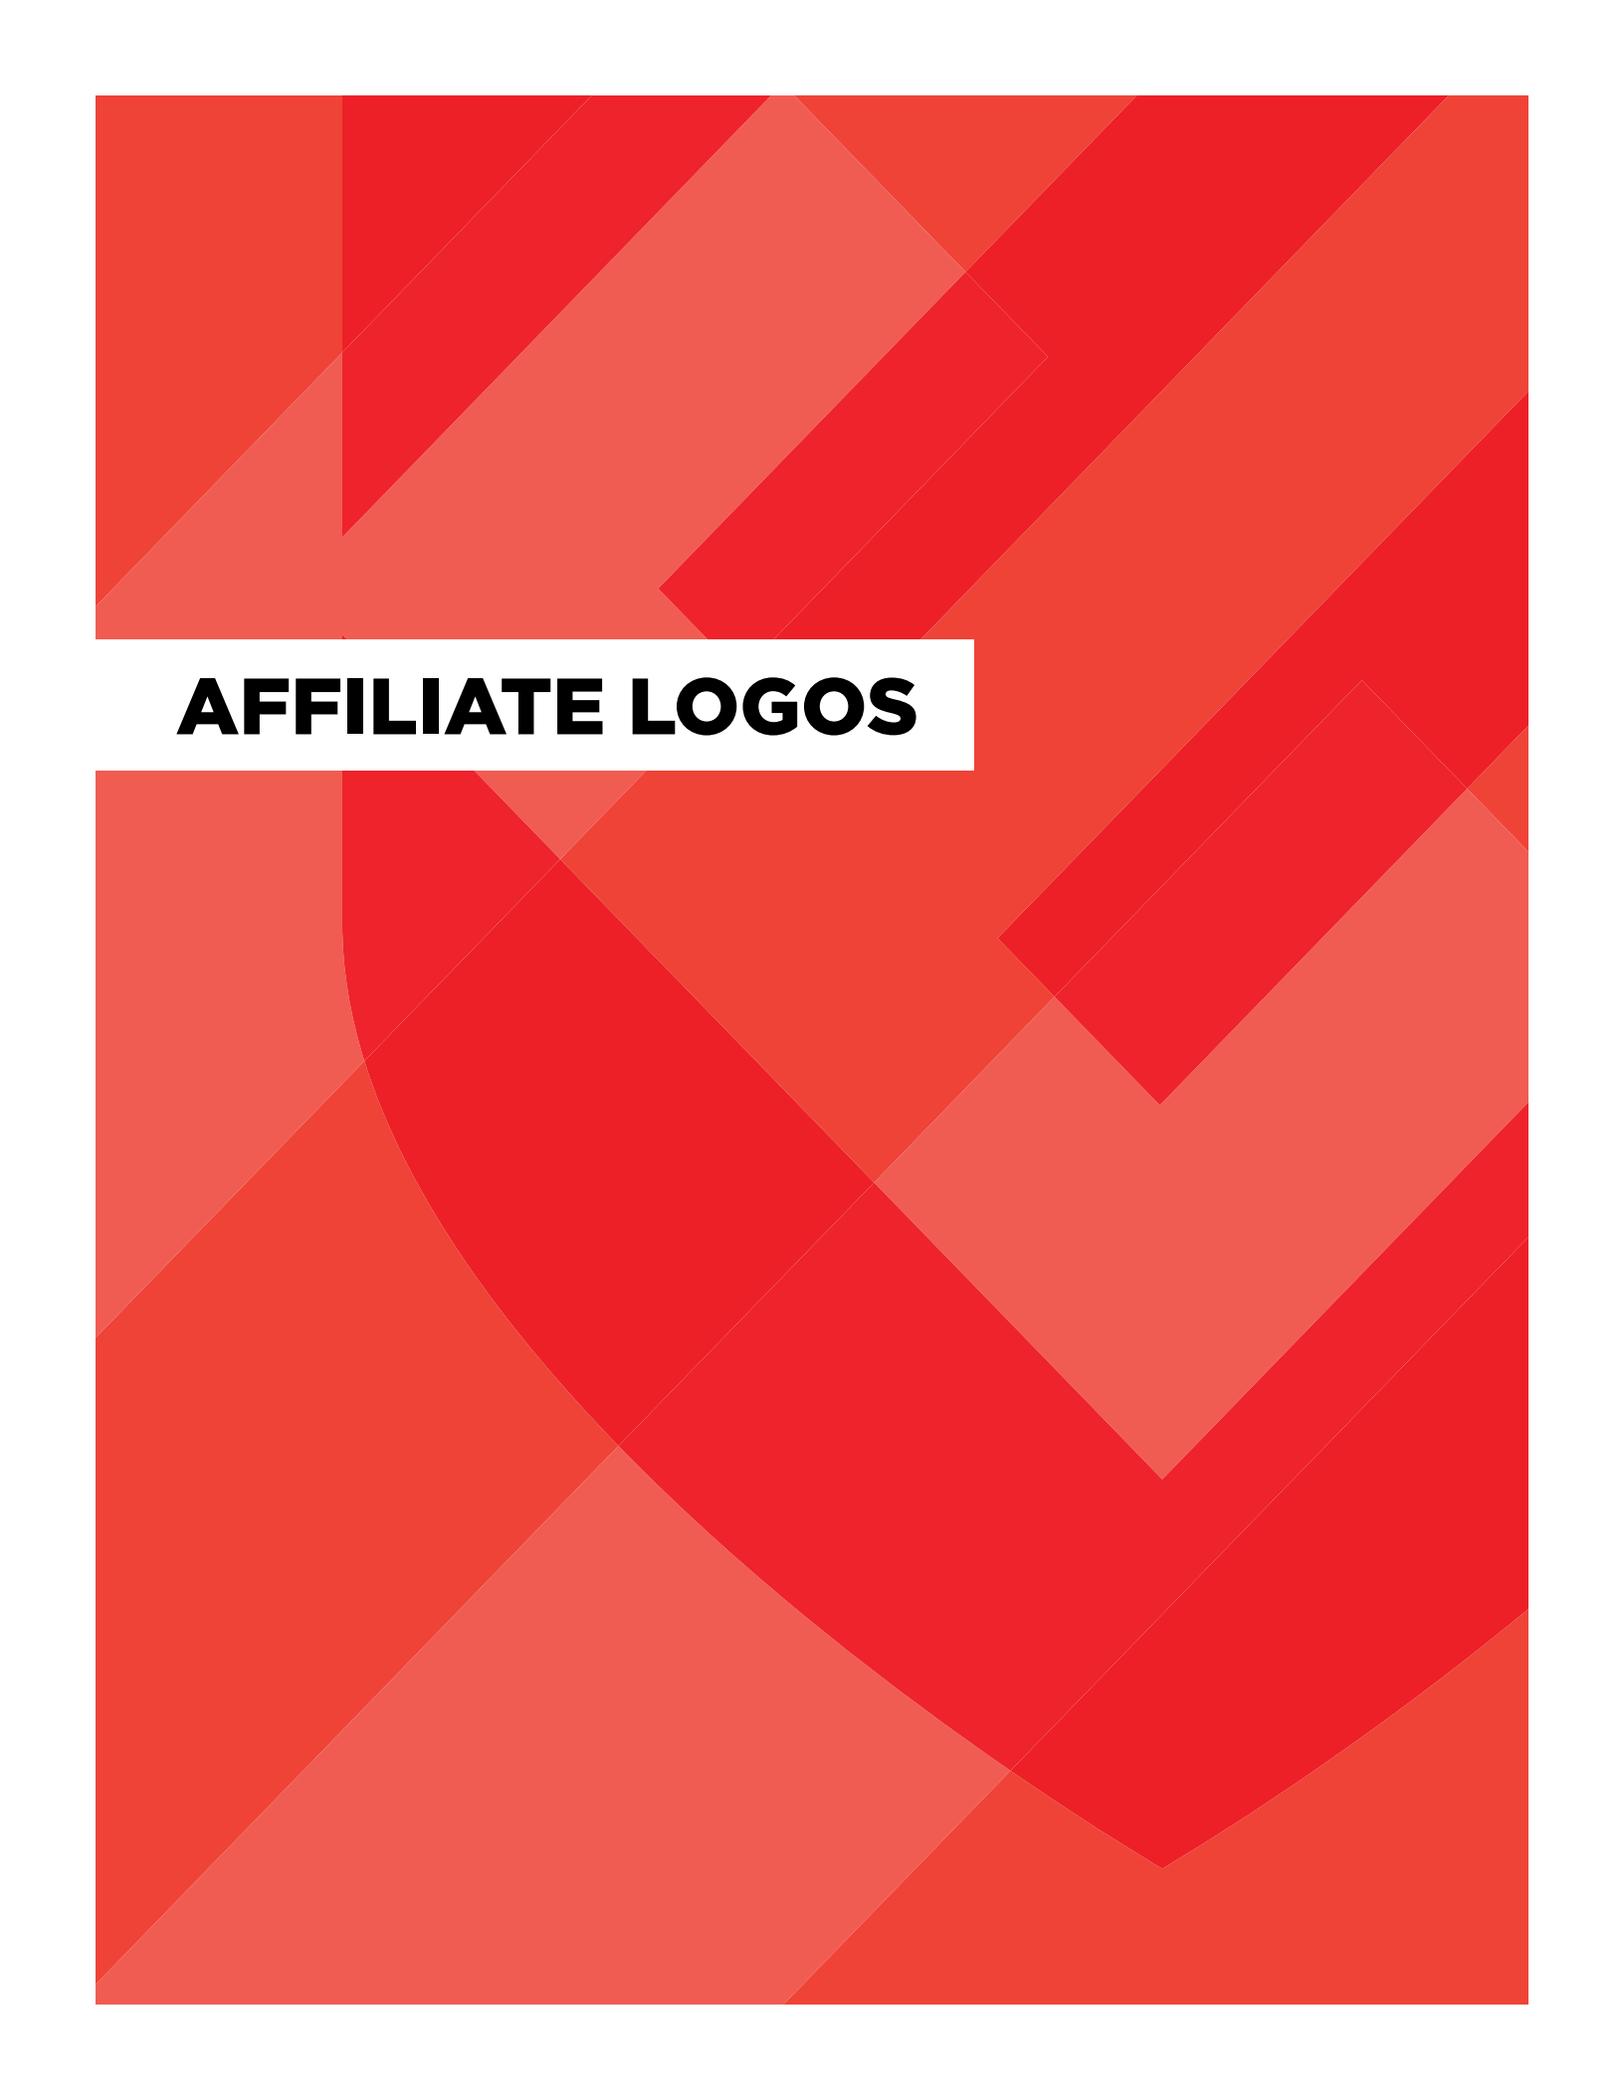

Cover photos

We recommend using a cover image that shows your rising educators in action! This is a chance to spotlight students in your district, school, or state.

MERCHANDISE

We know students want T-shirts and other gear to show off their Educators Rising pride. While the Educators Rising logo will not be distributed to create apparel or merchandise, our Educators Rising virtual store offers affordable, fun merchandise for students and adults.

The store is available at store.educatorsrising.org.

AFFILIATE LOGOS

AFFILIATE LOGO GUIDELINES

Affiliate logos are provided to programs that have a formal partnership agreement with the Educators Rising national office. All affiliate logos are subject to the same logo guidelines outlined on p. 8-13.

The logo may only be used by the school or organization that is formally affiliated with Educators Rising. The representation is not assignable or transferable. Additionally, logos should only be applied to materials directly related to the Educators Rising program. Branded materials must be consistent with and directly related to Educators Rising's purpose.

Please contact the Educators Rising national office for more information about establishing a partnership.
